Release and Waiver of Liability for Administering Emergency Treatment to Children with Severe Allergies

This is a release and waiver of liability for administering emergency treatment to children with severe allergies (hereinafter, referred to as the "Release") made this ____ day of _____, 20____, by and between Miss Betty's Day Camp and _____ (parent/guardian) residing at _____ (address) who is the guardian of _____ (child's name) .

Whereas, Miss Betty's Day Camp provides a day camp program for children at Pickering Grove Park located on Route 113 (between Yellow Springs and Pikeland Road), Chester Springs, PA 19425 and the guardian has engaged Miss Betty's Day Camp to provide day camp for _____ (child's name). Whereas, Miss Betty's Day Camp has been requested by the guardian to administer emergency treatment, including the administration of epinephrine, to the child during certain emergency situations when the child has come into contact with an allergen and is in danger of anaphylaxis, as prescribed in writing on the child's "Authorization For Emergency Care of Children With Severe Allergies," all in accordance with and subject to Miss Betty's Day Camp policy for administering emergency treatment to children with severe allergies.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the agreements and covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Parent/Guardian hereby releases and forever discharges Miss Betty's Day Camp and its employees or agents from any and all liability arising in law or equity as a result of Miss Betty's Day Camp employees or agents administering epinephrine and providing other emergency care in conformance with the child's "Authorization for Emergency Care of Children with Severe Allergies," hereinafter referred to as the "Authorization," provided that Miss Betty's Day Camp has used reasonable care in administering epinephrine and in providing other authorized care in accordance with the Authorization.
2. This Release shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which is the location of the Miss Betty's Day Camp program in which the child is enrolled, excluding its choice of law provisions.
3. This Release supersedes and replaces all prior negotiations and all agreements proposed or otherwise, whether written or oral, concerning all subject matters covered herein. This instrument, along with the Authorization (including any additional physician's instructions or clarifications) which is hereby incorporated by reference, constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matters discussed herein.

4. The reference in this Release to the term Miss Betty's Day Camp shall include Miss Betty's Day Camp, its affiliates, successors, directors, officers, employees and representatives. The term parent/guardian shall include the dependents, heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and successors or each.
5. If one or more of the provisions of this Release shall for any be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect or impair any other provision of the Release. This Release shall be constructed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions had not been contained herein.
